The eighth annual Artists of Fame and Promise exhibition, which opens at the Adler Fielding Galleries in Johannesburg on July 19, has this year been sponsored by one of the leading tobacco companies. Mrs. Peggy Moorhead (left), wife of the company's chairman, is seen with artist Elsa Marschall, who is commenting on "St. Peter," a sculpture by Lucas Sithole. Elsa Marschall, who will be entering for the Artists of Fame and Promise Exhibition, is also represented on the Republic Festival exhibition at the Provincial Building. Her work is particularly well composed and shows a sound feeling for the subtleties of colour.
